DAVIS THEATRE. Han Ping hien Presenting The Pekin Mysteries and a Complete Change of Pictures Today. What has been pronounced by everyone as the greatest vaudeville act ever seen in this city is Han Ping hien, the hinese wizard, who presents the Pekin Mysteries, at this theaire today. Many magicians have come and gone but this Chinaman has comething on them all. The act is nething on them all. The act is terent from anything ever seen here and the balancing work done by dif-ferent members of the troupe is sim-ply wonderful. It must be seen to be realized. Today will be the last chance to see this big act and no one can af-ford to miss this opportunity of wit-nessing one of the finest performances of magic ever presented to the American public. There will be a complete change of photo-plays today. The feature being the second chapter of The Diamond from the Sky, with Lottie Pickford and Irving Cummings Following is a brief synopsis of the picture.

Matt Harding, the gypsy father, overpowers his wife and takes her away before her presence is discovered. Three years later Hagar steals closely little daughter, Esther. the Colonel's little daughter, Esther, who has been reared in secret. She also obtains possession of "The Diamond from the Sky" and some valuable documents. When Esther is grown Hagar returns to Virginia with her. She asks Dr. Lee to adont Esther. ther. She asks Dr. Lee to adopt Esther as had originally been the Colonel's plan. Dr. Lee agrees, but demands that Hagar return "The Diamond from the Sky." Arthur Stanley is a profligate, but his love for Esther effects a reform. Blair, supposedly Arthur's cousin, also loves Esther. Blair accidentally sees "The Diamond from the Sky" in Dr. Lee's study. He endeavors to steal the diamond and in doing so kills Dr. Lee. Escaping he meets Arthur, come to serenade

210,000 in cash will be paid to the person who submits the best suggestion for a sequel to "The Diamond from the Sky."

Another big feature today will be the special two-reel Keystone with Mack Lennett and Mabel Normand. This is easily the funniest picture this company has ever made and you'll want to see it. Matinee daily at 2:30, all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"Road O'Strife", No. 4, with Crane Wilbur and Big Feature Program

An unusually strong program of all features is on at the Colonial theatire today, headed by the great Vitagraph masterpiece entitled, "The Lady of the Lighthouse." This is a star production featuring Rose Tapley, Lionel Adams, Reggie Sheffield, Charles Wellesley and many others. The story tells of Miss Hope, who is at the head of a school for blind children. Because of this fact she is called The Lady of the Lighthouse, and around her revolves the beautiful and touching romance that forms the basis of the drama, that is sure to strike to the heart of every patron of the Colonial theatre. The Road O'Strife, No. 4 is also on the program for today, this incident being entitled "The Ring of Death," telling how the finder of the murderer's ring is accused of the crime because the ring he found, is identified on his hand, "A Prince of Peace" is a wonderful Lubin drama, depicting a Kentucky feud of the hills. In this drama appears Edgar Jones, Justina Huff and many other of the big Lubin company. This feature is in two reels. Tomorrow night is Premium Night, when 15 useful and handsome articles will be given away. "The Goddess," the most ful and handsome articles will be given away. "The Goddess," the most talked-of serial of the day will soon be shown at the Colonial. Watch for FAIRGROUND RACES SATURDAY. Connecticut Amusement Association Will Have a Fast List of Riders.

The Connecticut Amusement associ-The Connecticut Amusement association promoters of sports of all kinds in Norwich, are optimistic young men, if anybody should ask you. They are not cast down, dismayed, worried, excited or beaten to a frazzle by the Fourth of July downpour that for the time being, knocked out the combination races, motorcycle and horse, the association had fixed up for the holiday on the fairgrounds track.

They will run the races Saturday, when, so says the weather report, old Jupiter wil not proceed to pluviate the way the god of deluge did on the Fourth.

Fourth. The four local flyers-"Wild Bill" The four local flyers—"Wild Bill" Burdick, who passes as Herbert F., on the voting list and in the city directory; H. H. Baldwin, George, or "Farmer" Latham and Walter N. Chhappel, will all be on hand, in shape, they say, to do the best riding they ever did. "Wild Bill is eager to get another try at Freddie Nixon, the Indian rider from Springfield, who, having been beaten once by the Norwich cannonball in the eight-mile open last September, proposes to do his level best to keep the Bay State colors from being again lowered to colors from being again lowered to the man from Connecticut. Latham. the man from Connecticut. Latham, too, is riding well, after a season's absence from the local track. He was in evidence at the 1913 races at the Norwich, Willimantic, and Rockville fairs, and at the first two he led Burdick, though only by a nose or two, in the 5-mile open. He is of the opinion that Burdick, Nixon, Pope, Brown, Prescott, Cox and the rest will have to reckon with the man from the creamery town in the open races. The Providence riders—Hendrickson, Garand and others will without doubt show up.

The horses have been at the track some days. The 2:20 trot or pace, $300, will certainly get out some speedy animals, and the 2:30, a $200 race, should fill, Entered for the faster class are Nelson Fontain's Ti Be Musco, J. J. White repp, with cadet blue pique, is here combined. The blouse in middy style is shaped at the closing. It may be finished with a regulation middy sleeve in wrist length, or with a neat pointed cuff turned back over the sleeve in wrist length, or with a straight plaited model so becoming to girls in their 'teens. Pique, linen, linene, poplin, batiste, dimity, lawn, gingham, galatea, percale chambrey or serge are nice for this style. The pattern is cut in four sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 4 yards of 36-inch material for an 8-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

POETRY

ROMANTIC MODERN WAR.

What a thrill of high emotion
When a foeman falls and squirms
Dying from a poisoned potion—
Forward, typhoid germs!

Gallant chemists and remarkle.
Onward, onward, poison troop!
Dope the wells and drive them frantio—
Heroes, give them croup!

What in all the world so thrilling
As the clash of warrior hate!
Chemists, forward to the killing!
Germs, incoulate!

THE QUESTION OF WHEN. Oh, the man who is ready and facile o Is the man who will dessie the the man who will dazzle the throng;
And the things that he says our attention will reach
Like the words of a beautiful song.
But life can't be tuned to a melody vast.
Whatever the vocalist's skill,
And we turn with a sense of dependence at last
To the man who knows when to keep still.

The man who is eager and quick to To each question that time may

To each question that time may present
We're forced to admire—yet how often we sigh.
And return to our old discontent.
The man with a courage and conscience devout.
May be lacking in eloquent thrill.
But the man who knows when it is time to speak out is the man who knows when to keep still.
